

DANIEL MARSHALL CIGARS "In Good Company"

churchills

Two scores of 91 points and a trio of 90s made this tasting of Churchills an intriguing category. We found plenty of excellent Churchills, some that retail for less than $10. The My Father Le Bijou 1922 Churchill is made in Nicaragua, and its strikingly dark wrapper is a perfect foreshadow for the notes of coffee and sweet licorice that follow. It scored 91 points. The Nat Sherman Timeless Collection Churchill, made in the Dominican Republic by Quesada Cigars, also scored 91. Churchills from Casa Magna Colorado, Daniel Marshall DM2 Red Label and Liga Privada T52 all scored 90 points, worthy of a size that takes its name from one of history's most famous cigar lovers.
